

E-FILING

Now Available for Clark County

The benefits of electronic filing are not limited to attorneys.
Unrepresented parties may also participate in e-filing.

BENEFITS:

- Free training for filers
- Reduces average filing times
- Increased access to file stamped copies of your court documents

BEFORE YOU E-FILE:

- Read Trial Rule 86 governing e-filing
- Read our e-filing instructions to ensure your case is filed without error
- Attend a training course online to learn the basics of e-filing
- Subscribe to updates about Indiana's e-filing project

E-file Indiana
courts.in.gov/efile

File court documents online 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Statewide e-filing has been made possible by a partnership between the Indiana Supreme Court, leaders from the executive and legislative branches of state government, as well as members of the bar, clerks, and judges.